Today

One last time (seriously this time), Joyce Shutts will be taking photos for a new Bicentennial Year directory during fellowship. Please don't miss your opportunity to be included.

To get our newsletter online go to: www.whbaptist.org. Send news for The Link to TheLink@whbaptist.org by the third Sunday of the month. Send items for the bulletin to bulletin@whbaptist.org by Thursday each week.

This sanctuary is equipped with a hearing loop. Set your hearing aid to the "T" setting or help yourself to any of the receivers available inside the front door. The ushers will assist you.

Call to Worship

Leader: We are the branches, rooted in the vine of Christ. We come because we seek to abide in Christ.

All: The branches that remain in the vine bear much fruit. We come because we long to be spiritually vibrant, alive, productive.

Leader: If we abide in Christ, then Christ's words will abide in us. We come because we strive to be faithful disciples.

All: We gather for worship now to the glory of One God: Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer. May we grow wildly as God tends us lovingly.

A history moment

At the covenant meeting in September 1882, James Lodge, an English tailor turned farmer, attacked Rev. A. Judson Allen for reasons not completely clear in the record. Animosity continued for more than a year until Deacon Wesley Search's angry support of Lodge led to Elder Allen's resignation. While here, Allen was instrumental in compiling an invaluable early church history.
