People: Descend upon us with Mercy and might; descend upon us with pardon and purpose

A history lesson by Isaiah Buskey

Josiah Nichols and his son Isaac arrived on the river road in 1811, the same year Michael Brininstool followed his son John to the rich Genesee Valley. Josiah's home was a frequent meeting place for the Bible study and prayer soon led by Michael Brininstool and a lay preacher called Elder Weaver. It was at Josiah Nichols' home where Baptists formally organized and called a pastor in February 1815.
