Call to Worship

Leader: God comes to us and offers us Sabbath time to be who God calls us to be.

People: Sometimes God comes when we don't want God in our lives.

Leader: Sometimes we ask for God and can't seem to hear God's voice.

People: Sometimes we hear God's voice clearly and run the other way.

Leader: Today we hand our fears over to God so that God can help us find our Sabbath way.

ALL: Today we continue our journey with God, a journey of Sabbath and renewal.

A history lesson by Darnell Ashford

Like pieces of a puzzle falling into place, key players in the future of West Henrietta Baptist Church continued to arrive in 1811. That April James McNall of Connecticut joined pioneers Michael Brininstool and Josiah and Isaac Nichols. James McNall would die in the War of 1812, but his son James and his descendants would join the Brininstools and Nichols in growing and leading the church for more than a century.
