A history lesson by Devonne Buskey

February is a time of beginnings for West Henrietta Baptist Church. It was in February 1815 that the congregation first organized in the home of Josiah Nichols. It was February 1838 that West Henrietta Baptists met at the home of Josiah's son Isaac to plan their separation from United Baptist and the reformation of our church. In February of the 1915 centennial year the church's old pipe organ was installed.
