* Hymn - # #657 "This is the Day" 2x
Invocation

Call to Worship

L: When we are lost in the wilderness, God's steadfast love endures forever.
All: When we complain about our problems, God's steadfast love endures forever.
L: When we ignore abundant provisions, God's steadfast love endures forever.
All: When we sneak around in the dark, God's steadfast love endures forever.
L: When questions loom and faith falters, God's steadfast love endures forever.
All: In this time of worship, God, may we release our failures and rest in your love. Amen.

A history moment by Devonne Buskey

Four Keyes brothers—twins Solomon and Isaiah and younger brothers Jeremiah and Edward—are known to have come to this area from Connecticut. Born in 1793, the twins arrived sometime before they married in 1821 and 1825. Solomon and Isaiah, stalwarts in United Baptist, supported the church split in 1838. Isaiah, a deacon in United Baptist, continued as a deacon in West Henrietta Baptist. Jeremiah's line, from which the late Emily Keyes descended, became active in the church later on.
