Into God's Presence

Prelude -

Welcome

* Hymn - # #657 "This is the Day" 2x

Invocation

Call to Worship

Leader: We come humbly, praising You for being a strong presence in our lives.

ALL: We gather in this place of worship to give ourselves to that cause. We ask for-giveness for the times we treat our place of worship as merely a place to meet and socialize.

Leader: Please help us to be more mindful of what it means to worship, that we may do so in spirit and in truth.

ALL: May we, the West Henrietta Baptist Church, along with other churches around the world remain vigilant in living out our purpose as true places of worship. Amen

A history moment by Colin Chase

The stained glass window of early Henrietta settler Alvah Remington hangs next to the window of his son-in-law, William Fenner. William Fenner was born in Henrietta in 1819, the same year Alvah Remington married Mercy Gorton. William would marry their daughter Sarah. Both the Remingtons and Fenners were prosperous early farmers. Lehigh Station Road was called Fenner Road for a time.
