A history moment by Isaiah Buskey

As energizing and exciting as the formation of the United Baptist Church must have seemed in 1827, it proved a difficult adjustment. Just two years later, the church nearly split over the handling of a minister's dismissal. Then, in 1834 and 1835, according to Monroe County Baptist Association records, 40 west-siders were back worshiping in the log cabin. Rev. Thomas Gorton, our minister before 1827, was their leader. That group eventually returned to United Baptist.
