Invocation

Call to Worship

Leader: God of Love, you love creation so much that you continually appear to share our burdens and fears.

People: Inspire us with the courage to love you.

Leader: Remind us that we commissioned to love every single creature we meet, because you permeate every atom of your universe.

People: We are baptized into the call to do no wrong.

Leader: Let us die to every excuse and justification,

ALL: and live only to love. Amen.

A History Moment

Upon completion of the building of the church in the summer of 1838, a council was called on Sept. 27 to recognize the church as a body of Christ. Six churches participated: First and Second Baptist of Rochester, United Baptist of Henrietta, and churches from Rush, Wheatland, and Pittsford. Three days later, the church was received into the Monroe Baptist Association. Representatives were Rev. Harley Miner, Horatio Corbin, Solomon Keyes, James McNall, and Jacob Brininstool
