Call to Worship

Blessed are those who walk hand in hand with goodness,
Who stand beside virtue, who sit in the seat of truth;
*For their delight is in the Spirit of Love,
And in Love's heart they dwell day and night.
They are like trees planted by streams of water,
That yield fruit in due season, and their leaves flourish.*

Unison: In all that they do, they give life.

The unloving are not so; they are like dandelions which the wind blows away.
Turning away from the Heart of Love, they will know suffering and pain.

They will be isolated from wisdom;
For Love knows the way of truth,
The way of ignorance will perish.

A history moment by Colin Chase

When West Henrietta Baptist Church claimed the northeast corner of West Henrietta in 1838, the other three corners of the hamlet were already occupied by two hotels and a general store. Alexander Williams' blacksmith and carriage shop, which is now the Moose Lodge, was just to the north on West Henrietta Road
